

Chartered
Secretaries
Southern Africa

The Premier Conference

Corporate governance after the crisis: The Companies Act and King 3

Finding your way back Southern Sun Grayston

7 - 8 September 2010

Freeman Nomvalo – King III and the Public Finance Management Act

Mandla Nkomfe – Stewardship and governance – the mandate of provincial government

Walter Geach – Planning and entity choices in the light of the new Companies Act

Chris Hart – Regulatory issues from a point of view of fostering and supporting economic growth and prosperity

Noah Greenhill – Shareholder value in AltX companies

Samuel Isaacs – Professional bodies and SAQA

Seamus Gillen – Improving board effectiveness

Carina Wessels – Embedding best practice in the daily routine of the company secretary

Dominik Heil – Stakeholder/shareholder engagement

Stephen Sadie – Public sector governance – From Armscor to Transnet

Thuli Madonsela – Holding government accountable

Anton van Wyk – Risk management effectiveness at the board level

Theo Botha – Will listed companies take King III seriously or is this just going to be a tick-box exercise?

Jayne Mammatt – Effective governance and sustainable business practices

Joel Wolpert – Board evaluations

Paul Hoffman – Public sector governance: how to exact accountability

Kevin Cron – The new Companies Act and its implications for directors and corporate governance

Jacqui Baumgardt – Non-executive directors – why, who and where?

Helen Starke – Best practice in the non-profit sector

Clive Kneale – The Companies Act: practical considerations for boards and company secretaries

Michael Campbell – The impact of corporate governance on the investor relations function

Gerald Seegers – Executive remuneration – latest developments

Book now to avoid disappointment

Tel: 011 706 4339. Email: premierconference@successfulevents.co.za

Website: www.icsa.co.za

BusinessDay
NEWS WORTH KNOWING